Confidentiality Policy

The Mabee-Simpson Library recognizes that its circulation data and other records identifying library users are confidential in nature. According to national library standards, confidentiality is essential to the individual’s pursuit of information and knowledge. Only the Library Director can release confidential user information to individuals or to agents of federal, state, or local law enforcement agencies and only if sufficient documentation proves that such records are necessary to the progress of an investigation or prosecution.